

application

A diagram showing the components of an application. A large light blue rectangle with a dashed border contains the word 'application' at the top. Below it is a smaller rectangle with a solid dark border containing five components: 'user', 'homePage', 'distrib', 'connexion', and 'model'. The first four components are each inside a small blue box, while 'model' is just text.

user

homePage

distrib

connexion

model